

from John W. Work's "American Negro Songs"

1998 reprint of original 1940 book

Dover Publications.

(Transcriptions of Fisk College Jubilee Singers repertoire)

NO HIDING PLACE

There's no hid - ing place down here, There's no hid - ing place down here, Went to the rocks for to hide my face,

Boat - man, boat - man, row one side,

Rocks cried out, "No hid - ing place," There's no hid - ing place down here.
Can't get to heav'n 'gainst wind and tide, There's no hid - ing place down here.

Third Verse

3. Sinner man, sinner man, better re - pent, God's going to call you to judgment. There's