City sidewalks, busy sidewalks
 Dressed in holiday style.
 In the air there's a
 Feeling of Christmas.
 Children laughing, people passing,
 Meeting smile after smile,

And on ev'ry street corner you hear:
 Silver bells, silver bells,
 It's Christmas time in the city.
 Ring-a-ling, hear them ring,
 Soon it will be Christmas day.

I HEARD THE BELLS ON CHRISTMAS DAY

Words adapted from LONGFELLOW
 Music by JOHNNY MARKS

Slowly

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It consists of five systems of music. Each system includes a vocal line with lyrics and a piano accompaniment with chords and fingering. The key signature is one flat (B-flat major). The tempo is marked 'Slowly'. The score includes various dynamics such as mp, cresc., and mf. There are two endings for the final phrase 'will to men, I will to men. And...'. The first ending leads back to the beginning of the phrase, and the second ending concludes the piece. Chords are indicated above the notes, and fingering numbers are shown below the notes. The lyrics are: 'I heard the bells on Christmas day, their old fa-mil-iar car-ols play; And thought, as now this day had come, The bel-fries of all Chris-ten-dom Had wild and sweet the words re-peat Of peace on Earth, good will to men, I rung so long the un-bro-kensong Of peace on Earth, good will to men. And in de-spair, I bowed my head. "There is no peace on earth", I said, "For hate is strong and mocks the song Of peace on earth, good will to men. "Then pealed the bells more loud and deep, "God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; The wrong shall fail, the right pre-vail, With peace on earth good will to men."

Oh, there's no place like
Home for the holidays,

When you pine for the sunshine
Of a friendly gaze,

For the holidays, you can't beat

And he was headin' for Pennsylvania
And some home made pumpkin pie.
